Introduction

The school year of 1961-62 will long be remembered as the year of the evaluation by the Middle Atlantic States Association. This organization evaluated our school in one week; yet, in a sense, the evaluation process is a continuous one with us as students and faculty. Recorded on the following pages are the results of our self-evaluation. How do we rate? The decision will be yours as you go through our book and review the people and events that made up the 1961-62 school year at Philipsburg-Osceola Area Senior High School.

Dedication

CAROLE FRANCES CARTWRIGHT

The Class of 1962 respectfully wishes to dedicate this, their yearbook, to a former classmate, Carole Frances Cartwright. We feel it only proper that we pause and pay tribute to one who cannot be with us to share our last days together as a class.

Carole completed her sophomore year and a portion of her junior year, before she was discontinued due to ill health, and she passed away in July of 1961.

We have but faith; we cannot know;
For knowledge is of things we see;
And yet we trust it comes from Thee
A beam in Darkness; let it grow.

Let knowledge grow from more to more,
But more of reverence in us dwell;
That mind and soul, according well,
May make one music as before.

Tennyson

FRANK E. EHRENFELD, B.S., M.S.
Supervising Principal

Honored Seniors: You have sculptured the first footprints of your life.

Graduation is rightly named Commencement for it is but the beginning of your life's endeavors and the seeds of your happiness.

Our prayers go with you as you explore the vast goals of this age of science and outer space which unfolds almost unbelievable possibilities for you.

No matter how large or small your part may be; hold to your high ideals, ever mindful of the goodness and greatness of Him who created the universe, you and me. Strive always that He may be proud of His handiwork; even as you and I glorify and magnify His name.

M. S. HANCOCK, A.B., M.Ed.
Senior High School Principal

The graduating class of 1962 of the Philipsburg-Osceola Area Senior High School is the first class to have been enrolled in the new senior high school building for the full three year period. This opportunity has come to you through the foresight and planning of the citizens, school board, and faculty of the Philipsburg-Osceola Area. You are to be congratulated in reaching this goal, as many of your former classmates were not able to meet the challenge and will never have the experience of graduating from high school.

It has been said that your high school days are the happiest days of your life. I sincerely trust you have found this to be true, and in moments of retrospection you will look upon the years spent in the classrooms of your school with pleasure and pride in work well done.

May I add that I hope every member of the class of 1962 has taken advantage of the opportunities offered in a high school education and by exemplification make this world a better place in which to live.

EDWARD J. GRUNDY, B.S., M.ED.
Director of Curricula

Congratulations. Your graduation, although unending, is yet a very important beginning. The diploma you will receive is not only an award for successfully completing a prescribed course of study but also a certificate to the future. The value derived from this certificate will now depend on what worthwhile goals you have set for yourself. The cliche - Reach for the Moon - is fast becoming a reality. Future success will be restricted only by your own ambition and fortitude.

ENDINGS AND BEGINNINGS

by Patience Strong

This is the time of endings—but of new beginnings, too.
God sends us another year and maketh all things new,
Another hope, another chance, another road to take,
Another star to follow and another start to make.

New beginnings, new adventures, new heights to attain,
Golden opportunities to work and build again,
New and higher aspirations for the future days,
Seeking, dreaming, moving on down bright and better ways.

All-Class Play

"The Crucible"

An historical drama written by one of America's most outstanding modern playwrights, Arthur Miller, presented a tremendous challenge to both the cast and the technical crews of our first all-class play this year. Set in Salem, Mass., this tense drama centered on actual happings during the dark days of the famous Salem witch trials of 1697. "The Crucible" demanded a great emotional acting portrayed with restraint and finesse, and our cast, headed by such fine actors as Sydney Garfinkle, Judy Gallo, Joan English, and Mary Wayne, responded with the inner spark required in an excellent performance. Truly, "The Crucible" was our shining hour in the field of serious drama.

"Ramshackle Inn"

Next time you pass the auditorium listen closely and you'll hear the still-clinging echo of the side-splitting laughter provoked by "Ramshackle Inn," our second all-class play for the year. A mystery-farce by George Batson, "Inn" proved to be one of the zaniest, craziest, most hilarious plays ever to be presented at P. O.!

The story concerned a rather addled spinster, Belinda Pryde, who saved her money to go into the hotel business. She thought it would be an interesting change from her library work in quiet East Spawick. It certainly was! Belinda found the inn to be a headquarters for a liquor smuggling ring, and the place was crawling with gangsters, dead bodies, "country cops" and undercover F.B.I. agents. Hardly the ingredients one would expect to find in a farce. But as we followed Miss Pryde through one hair-raising experience after the other, we were engulfed in uproarious laughter. Finally, Belinda, though she definitely was not the Eliot Ness type, solved the whole case with one swoop of a bottle across the head of Mr. Big himself. "All's well that ends well" and a good time was had by all who saw or had a hand in presenting "Ramshackle Inn."
